This one-day intensive course is designed for the everyday horse owner who wishes to learn and utilise basic massage & stretching techniques to improve the overall maintenance of their horse.

The course will cover basic Equine Anatomy & Physiology with Massage & Stretching Techniques, specific to your requirements, with plenty of hands-on practise throughout the day. Please Note: You do not need to bring your own horse.

Students are asked (but not expected) to have a very basic knowledge of Equine Anatomy (Muscular & Skeletal) to help them relate to the areas that they are going to be touching throughout the duration of the day.

Course Duration: 6-8 hours (max)

- Basic Equine Anatomy Home Study (as outlined above)
- Theory & Practical sessions 10:00am to 4:30pm (approximately)

Our training is mainly carried out at Kirsty Hardstaff Equestrian, Hall Farm, Main Street, Linby, Nottingham, NG15 8AE; although alternative venues can be organised by prior arrangement. The cost of this certificate is £125.00 inclusive of a course workbook & certificate of attendance. A £55.00 deposit will be required to secure your placement on any course and this deposit is non-refundable. Students will be expected to provide their own lunch and personal accident insurance cover for the duration of the course. The balance of £70.00 will be required in cash on the day or payment by Bank Transfer prior to course date.

Helpful Pre-Course Reading: (not essential)

How Your Horse Moves – by Gillian Higgins
Horse Anatomy A Colouring Atlas – by Robert A Kainer & Thomas O McCracken
Sports Massage a Practical Guide by Jean-Pierre Hourdebaight

The Internet is also a great source of information & should be sufficient for the basic knowledge required. Please do not feel that you have to purchase the above books, they are just for recommended reading purposes only.

The course has a maximum intake of 6-8 participants (depending of the venue) per course to ensure the quality of the teaching and maximise learning potential.
